

International Skincare Conference

Internal and external influences on skin health and skin ageing

11-12 July 2018, Shangri-La Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand

Day One – Wednesday 11 July

Time		Speaker
08:15	Registration and welcome coffee
09:00	Opening address by conference programme director	Dr Jack Ferguson, Skinnovation Ltd, UK
	Session 1: Healthy and ageing skin	Chair: Dr Jack Ferguson, Skinnovation Ltd, UK
09:15	Keynote: Weighing the risks and benefits of sun exposure: skin type and location matter	Professor Robyn Lucas, Australian National University, Australia
10:00	The role of vitamin D in skin protection	Dr Bianca McCarthy, University of Sydney, Australia
10:30	Networking coffee break
11:00	Skin ageing in different countries: A perspective	Cyril Messaraa, Oriflame Research & Development, Ireland
11:30	Keynote: The democracy and diversity of ageing in our global village	Prof. Paul Matts, Procter and Gamble, UK
12:15	Discussion
12:30	Lunch
	Session 2: Importance of skin microbiome, environment and protection to skin health	Chair: Philip Jacobs, Jacobs & Associates, Singapore
13:30	Keynote: Mapping of Intrinsic and extrinsic ageing in Asian and Caucasian women	Dr Frédéric Flament, L'Oréal Research & Innovation, France
14:15	Effect of Environmental Pollutants on Skin Ageing and on the Skin Microbiota	Jessen Curpen, CIDP, Mauritius
14:45	The Healthy Facial Skin Microbiome	Rupak Mitra, Ph.D, Unilever R&D Centre, India
15:15	Networking coffee break
15:45	SPF = Real or Imagined?	John Staton, Dermatest, Australia
16:15	Keynote: The molecular anatomy of dry and photodamaged facial stratum corneum	Dr Anthony Rawlings, AVR Consulting Ltd, UK
17:00	Skin & Ageing – how will things look in 2028	Steve Barton, SkinThinking, UK
17:30	Panel of experts open discussion	Chair: Dr Jack Ferguson, Skinnovation Ltd, UK
18:30	Drinks reception
19:30	End of first day

International Skincare Conference

Internal and external influences on skin health and skin ageing

11-12 July 2018, Shangri-La Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand

Day Two – Thursday 12 July

Time		Speaker
08:30	Registration and welcome coffee
	Session 3: Formulating functional skin care for healthy younger looking skin	Chair: Dr Alain Khaiat, Seers Consulting, Singapore
09:00	Selecting and Using Preservatives in Skin care and Suncare Products	Kevin Roden, Thor Specialities, Australia
09:30	The influence of rheology on sunscreen performance and SPF	Dr Robert Houlden, Formulytica, Australia
10:00	Photoaging an overview: Nanotechnology and Photoprotection	Dr Tariq Mahmood, University of Central Punjab, Pakistan
10:30	Networking coffee break
11:00	Farm-to-face: Natural Anti-Ageing Skin Care	Malyn Ungsurungsie, S&J International Enterprises PCL, Thailand
11:30	Discussion
	Session 4: Performance testing, product claims, consumer expectations and regulatory challenges	Chair: Dr Jack Ferguson, Skinnovation Ltd, UK
11:45	New draft regulations on skin care claims support requirements in China	April Guo, Chemical Inspection and Regulation Service (CIRS), China
12:15	Cosmetic Regulations in Asia	Dr Alain Khaiat, Seers Consulting, Singapore
12:45	Lunch
13:45	Natural Solutions for Sensitive Skin – A Randomized, Double Blind Trial	Dr Hemali Gunt, Burt's Bees, USA
14:15	New ISO Standards for Water Resistance	John Staton, Dermatest, Australia
14:45	The “Humble” Moisturiser...	Prof. Paul Matts, Procter and Gamble, UK
15:15	Concluding remarks and discussion
15:45	Conference closes	